

Literary club will meet Thursday morning promptly at 10 o'clock. Mrs. J. H. Brown will give the special topic, and one-minute talks will be on the pyramids and the sphinx.

The P. E. O. society met yesterday afternoon with Miss A. E. Buchanan and after the business of the club was disposed of, listened to a very well rendered Wardworth programme prepared by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the same place on Nov. 1.

The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the club house. Mrs. Gorman and Mrs. J. C. E. King will have charge of the programme, and the study is to be "The Plot on the Escutcheon."

At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Literary club next Friday Mrs. Whitaker will give a paper on "The Art of Conversation," and Miss Murphy will treat "The Women of the French Salon."

The music section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the club house. The composers for the day are Ethelbert Nevin and Mrs. Jessie Gaynor.

Utah Federation of Women's Clubs.

The ninth annual convention of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the Methodist church, Ogden, on Oct. 29, 30 and 31. There will be eight regular sessions, supplemented by two receptions and a drive and visit to the School for the Deaf and Blind. The local committees, the committee on programme and the executive board of the U. F. W. C. have spared no effort to make this convention the best in the history of club endeavor. The transportation committee has secured a general rate of one and one-fifth fare on all railway lines within the state. Moreover, the hospitable women of Ogden are steadily working to perfect every detail that will add to the pleasure of the occasion. The programme is running over with good things. The topics for discussion along educational, industrial, art and literary lines are of exceeding interest, not only to club women, but to men and women generally. The musical programme, in charge of Mrs. George C. Bent, and the special music session, under the supervision of Mrs. W. A. Neiden, should of themselves insure a large attendance. There will be no admission asked for any session.

Clubs desiring membership and representation will make written application, accompanied by their constitutions, to the state organizer, Mrs. R. T. Hilliard, 567 Twenty-sixth street, Ogden. The courtesies of the floor will be extended to both home and visiting club members, and it is hoped thereby to insure a full and free discussion upon all questions presented.

Reaper's Club.

The tenth annual meeting of the Reapers' club will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 with Mrs. Stevenson, 112 South First West street. The special guests of honor will be Presidents R. W. Smith, M. I. Home and S. J. Cannon. The club will listen to an address by Nephi L. Morris on "The Dark Ages." The members of the Utah Woman's Press club are invited to be present, and the evening is to be largely a social one. The club will send Mrs. M. L. Morris to Ogden as the proxy of the president, and Mrs. R. K. Thomas will be the delegate.

Utah Woman's Press Association.
A special meeting of the Utah Woman's Press association was held at the office of the Woman's Exponent in the Templeton building Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was for the purpose of nominating officers for the year, the election to take place at the meeting of Nov. 1. The following ladies were named for the officers of the club: Mrs. F. C. Wilcox, president; Mrs. Anna C. Whitson, vice president; Mrs. Emma H. Jensen, second vice president; Miss Estelle Neff, recording secretary; Dr. R. B. Pratt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. P. H. Doonan, treasurer. Dr. Pratt was elected a delegate to the meeting of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held the last three days of the month in Ogden.

Reviewer's Club.

The Reviewers' club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Nelden. The day will be devoted to the state federation matters instead of the general federation. Mrs. Nelden will speak on the work of the traveling library committee, Mrs. Vincent on the kindergarten work, Mrs. Bickford on the relation of the state to the general federation, and several members of the board of directors will speak on the state federation.

Cleolan.

The Cleolan met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Julia Y. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor was the chairman of the day as well as the hostess, and conducted the reading from McCarthy's "England in the Nineteenth Century." Next Tuesday the club will meet at the same place, and a paper will be read by Mrs. John McVicker on an educational subject.

Club Notes.

A rate of one and one-fifth fares for the round trip has been secured for the meeting of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs, at Ogden the last of the month. Tickets will be sold on the certificate plan, and will be good from the 28th of the month till Nov. 1.

The tourist section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Subjects for the morning: "History of Austria from 1780 to the Present Time," by Miss Crawford, and a five-minute talk on Stephen Botskoi, by members of the section.

The history section of the Ladies'

The committee on entertainment for the federation is prepared to extend hospitality to all visiting club women who attend the annual meetings of the federation to be held at Ogden on Oct. 29, 30 and 31, 1902. In order to facilitate the work of the committee, those expecting to attend are urged to communicate at once with the chairman, Mrs. A. B. Corey, 533 Twenty-sixth street, Ogden, Utah.

Ogden Clubs.

The Historical society, with Miss Dickenson of Provo as guest, held an enjoyable and profitable meeting on Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. Bichel.

The business session was filled with a universal good feeling of expectancy and helpfulness in view of the coming annual federation meetings. An excellent literary programme followed, which consisted of three well prepared papers: "Adams' Administration," by Miss Prout; "Protective Tariff," by Mrs. Cortez, and "The American Poets, Longfellow and Bryant," by the president, Mrs. Putnam. Then came an additional treat from a friend of "Historical" in the form of a unique paper on "The Cooking Club," contributed by Mrs. Little of Winona, Minn., a graduate of Gale university.

After an unusually happy hour with the hostess and tea, the club dispersed, feeling that another round of the ladder had been reached.

Provo Clubs.

On Friday the Nineteenth Century club met at Mrs. Sutton's. After the business of the day had been transacted, Mrs. Beesley gave a long and interesting talk on Cecil Rhodes, telling of his life, work and pursuits. Mrs. Searles read a paper on Marconi. Mrs. Corfman then gave a paper on "Submarine Navigation," illustrating her topic with pictures of the most prominent submarine boats. Mrs. Countryman from Monroe, Ia., was a club visitor.

CHOLERA ABATING.

London, Oct. 18.—Lord Cromer, the British diplomatic agent in Egypt, has telegraphed to the foreign office here announcing that cholera is practically free from Egypt. The total number of cases in Egypt is under 100 daily, and the disease is expected to cease its epidemic form about Nov. 15.

RIPANS. I had been a sufferer from indigestion for fifteen or twenty years. About six months ago a lady advised me to get some Ripans Tablets. Before I commenced to take them, every time I would eat anything I would feel so full of wind or gas that it seemed as if I could not get my breath, and sometimes I would have to stop and lie down. Since I have taken Ripans Tablets I can eat anything, and it doesn't seem to hurt me at all.

At Druggists. The Five-cent package is enough for an ordinary occasion. The family bottle, 50 cents, contains a supply for a year.
